

Article 15 – Review and Revision of the Constitution

15.01 Duty to monitor and review the Constitution

The Head of Paid Service and Monitoring Officer will jointly monitor and review the operation of the Constitution to ensure that the aims and principles of the Constitution are given full effect. They will undertake a formal review of the whole Constitution at least once every four years and present a report to the Council, (without prejudice to their right to report on any aspect of the Constitution requiring revision at any time).

15.02 Changes to the Constitution

(a) Approval

Changes to the Constitution will only be approved by the full Council after consideration of a proposal by the Cabinet.
